Exploding Babies is a party action game for up to 4 players. The game has super-simple controls with only one directional key and one button, and rules that can be understood in seconds. It doesn't matter what kind of gaming experience you have! Anyone can enjoy this game right away and will surely get excited about it. There are multiple game modes. Battle royale where you fight until you are the last one standing and team battles where you fight in groups of two etc.

Exploding Babies, already released in Early Access in English only, is now fully localized into Japanese by Paradigm Shift. The game is officially available on the Steam Store from Wednesday, October 27th, 2021. For more information, please visit the Exploding Babies Steam Store.
